

Women (Non-Cast) in Revenge In Kind

There was no bias, pro or con, in the selection of non-cast women who participated in the production of Revenge In Kind. The team who put together the roster of crew and support personnel was led by film-maker KC Bailey and included her close collaborators Angel Vasquez (Producer) and Zubi Mohammed (Production Manager). Together, they sought the best expertise available within the film's budget. As it turned out, about one-half of those hired were women. The list of positions and the women who filled them is below.
